LACK OF HARMONY AT REVIVAL MEETINGS BEING HELD AT THE NAZARENE MISSION

There is evidently more enthusiasm than harmony at the series of revival meetings being held at the Nazarene mission, 141 East Second South street. They began Sunday night with Mrs. Kent White of the Pentecostal union of Denver as speaker. The meetings have been well attended, and all went smoothly until Thursday night, when Mrs. White took occasion to censure the Nazarene congregation at Los Angeles, Cal., where she recently held a series of meetings. She claimed that many of the members in Los Angeles, were living impure lives not consistent with Christian doctrines, and that the local authorities of the church did not condemn their wicked course.

These statements, derogatory to the These statements, derogatory to the condemn to the statements of revival and part of the board were with the evantagelist, and when a vote was taken the objecting members of the board were in a hopeless minority.

ROSE UNDER DEATH WATCH.—Frank Rose, convicted of the murder of his wife, has only two weeks more to live. Warden Arthur Pratt of the penitentiary yesterday placed the death watch over him. Until his execution, April 22, he will be guarded night and day. The guards, who will each take an eight-hour shift, are George Pugsley. Charles H. Davis and Harry Shurtliff. Rose views the new arrangements with his customary indifference.

BURGLARY REPORTED .- Mrs. H. W. BURGLARY REPORTED.—Mrs. H. W. Earl reported yesterday morning at the police station that her residence, at 831 East Fourth South street, had been burglarized Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock while the members of the family were away from home. She said that when her daughter came from school in the afternoon she found the furniture turned upside down and the house completely ransacked. The burglars secured $50 in money and a woman's gold watch. Both doors were locked and there was no evidence as to how entrance into the house was made.

house was made.

DISCUSS IRRIGATION.—D. W. Ross, supervising engineer of the geological survey in charge of this territory, spent the greater part of the day yesterday In discussing the Utah lake improvements with representatives of the local committee of water users. The others present at the session in the office of George L. Swendsen, engineer in charge of the Utah lake surveys, were Professor Swendsen, State Engineer A. F. Doremus, F. S. Richards and Colonel E. F. Holmes. No tangible action was taken, the object being mainly to acquain Mr. Ross with the situation. The Utah arid land commission met yesterday afternoon in the office of State Engineer Doremus and discussed the situation, but took no definite action.
